Brilliantly Illuminating Lamp of the Five Stages (rim lnga rab tu gsal ba'i sgron me) is Tsong Khapa's most important commentary on the perfection stage practices of the Esoteric Community (Guhyasamaja), the tantra he considered fundamental for the practice of the "father tantra" class of unexcelled yoga tantras. It draws heavily on Nagarjuna's Five Stages (Pañcakrama) and Aryadeva's Lamp that Integrates the Practices (Caryamelapakapradipa), as well as a vast range of perfection stage works included in the Tibetan canonical (Kangyur and Tengyur) collections. It is an important work for both scholars and practitioners. A reader of this work will find in it convincing evidence for Tsong Khapa's own yogic experience and attainment, in coordination with his better-known philosophical and scholarly achievements. The present revised edition of the work is a cornerstone of the Complete Works of Jey Tsong Khapa and Sons collection, a subset of the Treasury of the Buddhist Sciences series. Comprised of the collected works of Tsong Khapa (1357–1419) and his spiritual sons, Gyaltsap Darma Rinchen (1364–1432) and Khedrup Gelek Pelsang (1385–1438), the numerous works in this set of Tibetan treatises and supercommentaries are based on the thousands of works in the Tibetan Buddhist canon.

Basing himself in the Indian city of Banaras, where magic is a familiar part of everyday life, the author reviews the major theories that have explained magic over the last century. He argues that all of these theories leave out something critical, namely what he calls "magical consciousness."

Today's greatest health challenges, the so-called diseases of civilization—depression, trauma, obesity, cancer—are now known in large part to reflect our inability to tame stress reflexes gone wild and to empower instead the peaceful, healing and sociable part of our nature that adapts us to civilized life.

The same can be said of the economic challenges posed by the stress-reactive cycles of boom and bust, driven by addictive greed and compulsive panic. As current research opens up new horizons of stress-cessation, empathic intelligence, peak performance, and shared happiness, it has also encountered Asian methods of self-healing and interdependence more effective and teachable than any known in the West. Sustainable Happiness is the first book to make Asia's most rigorous and complete system of contemplative living, hidden for centuries in Tibet, accessible to help us all on our shared journey towards sustainable well-being, altruism, inspiration and happiness.

Love's Story, the final volume of Ajit Sripad Rao Nalkur's trilogy on love, highlights his vision and realisation of true love on Earth. The poems in this volume were written over a period of twenty years while Nalkur was living and working in Australia and the United States and after he returned to his birth country, India. This volume is divided into three parts. "The Vision" contains poems he began to write in Australia in the early 1990s and takes a narrative form, with much of the work appearing in prose. It offers the poet's visionary experience of love Part two, entitled "Love on Earth," addresses the realisation and actualisation of that love. The third and final part of the book, "Poet's Corner," contains verse on the art of poetry. Love's Story explores true love in all its aspects and considers the realisation of a dream of such a love on Earth.

Knights of Sehaann embody responsibility, honor, and privilege. But Kyren has loftier goals. He wants a spot in the Royal Guard. It's among those elite warriors that he'll find purpose, reward for years of sword training, and the only family he has left. He's unsure, though, if the story of his past is true. And if his brazen audacity doesn't get him killed, his knighthood test just might. After a lifetime spent in obscurity in the country, Kyren knows nothing of palace etiquette or provincial politics. He was raised as a commoner, a farmer, a nobody. But the revelation of his true identity sends him chasing his dream of becoming a knight all the way to the Sehaannian capital. He hopes to connect with the brother he never knew he had. He wants to make a difference in the world. He has no idea what he's gotten himself into. Ani is an outcast. Separated from his family, disrespected by his peers, ignored by his masters, he's a slave striving to make a name for himself in a cutthroat world of selfish ambition. The nearest thing he has to a friend is the young boy who's adopted him as his reluctant mentor. Though he desperately craves companionship, he can't let anyone get too close. Intimacy is too risky. If anyone discovers why he tiptoes down darkened halls in the middle of the night, his life and his family will be forfeit. Two lonely souls brought together by chance—one dedicated to honor and duty and one weighed down by obligation. It's either the best partnership they could ever hope for or a disaster waiting to happen. As political tensions in Sehaann reach a breaking point, lines will be drawn, choices will be made, and split-second decisions will ignite a war. Both Kyren and Ani are searching for a place to belong. Gods willing, it won't be on either side of a battlefield. This work is intended for a mature audience and contains mature content. For a more comprehensive list of content tags, please see this book's information page at the author's website.
