Cracking India - Wikipedia
 Bapsi Sidhwa's novel, Cracking India, is set against the momentous backdrop of the partitioning of India, a bloody, grim, and violent event that created two countries out of one. The clever use of a four-year-old girl, Lenny Sethi, as her first-person narrator affords Sidhwa the opportunity to incorporate extremes of emotion that might be experienced by a child.

Cracking India by Bapsi Sidhwa - Goodreads
 Bapsi Sidhwa's Cracking India will expand and alter your view of India, Pakistan, and the British Raj. Using a child-narrator, a literary device over-employed and often unsuccessful, this author has found the perfect vehicle for conveying the heart-breaking story of the Partition of India in 1947, without being coy and without descending into bathos.

Cracking India: A Novel - Bapsi Sidhwa - Google Books
 Cracking India tells the story of the partition of India through the eyes of young Lenny, a Parsee girl growing up in Lahore. Lenny narrates the events of her family and native Lahore over more than a ten year period, from before World War II to just after Indian independence and the partition. The power of Cracking India stems from Sidhwa's creation of an idyllic picture of Lenny's childhood, and the relative inter-racial harmony of pre-Independence Lahore.
