you and prepare you to be an ambassador for Him, to bear witness of His love and sustaining strength in your trials in a world that asks: "What difference does it make to be a Christian?" "If God is so good, why do bad things happen to good people?"; and "How can I know for sure I'm going to heaven when I die?" Herr insists that when you discover the courage, strength, peace, and hope God provides, you, too, will be able to praise God in the valley.

of difficulty, how do we respond? We need not suffer the darkness alone. God awaits us in the valley, ready to teach us more about His heart--and our own. Kathy Green knows what it's like to walk through life's valleys. Following a routine thyroid surgery, she woke up not realizing one of her vocal cords had been injured and her voice altered until she tried to speak for the first time. She cried out to God, wondering how she would function in daily life, let alone continue her ministry as a teacher and conference speaker. He answered, Meet Me in the Valley. It was on this difficult journey that God began to

Illuminating what it means to wait quietly and expectantly in God's presence, author Kathy Green shares rich insights gained in the depths of her own valleys and provides scriptural examples of others who have walked through life's darker seasons and emerged victorious. With prayers to lead readers toward God and guidance on how to maximize time in the valley to gain a greater knowledge of Him, this resource will uplift readers' hearts with hope and ignite their faith with the truth of God's faithfulness. God never allows us to go

When times are great or even good it's easy to praise God and Give Him thanks. Yesterday you were on top of the world and today the world is on top of you. What do you do when it feels like you went from the palace to the pit or prison. You have fallen off the mountain and now you are in the valley. Cheer up, the God on the mountain is still God in the valley Psalm 46:10 (NLT) "Be still, and know that I am God! I will be honored by every nation. I will be honored throughout the world."
