Millewa Football League football League 2012 Guide 2012

The Millewa Football League is an Australian rules football league with teams based in north-western Victoria and south-western New South Wales, Australia.. The clubs are mostly based within the same area as the clubs in the Sunraysia Football League, but generally represent smaller towns and communities. Clubs only field one senior football team and up to five netball teams.

Millewa Football League - Wikipedia

The 2012–13 Football League (known as the npower Football League for sponsorship reasons) was the 114th season of the Football League. It began in August 2012 and concluded in May 2013, with the promotion play-off finals. The Football League is contested through three Divisions: the Championship, League One and League Two. The tiny league lost a reported $100 million during its first two seasons of play, despite staging a mere 32 games during that time. In April 2012, league investors Bill Hambrecht and Bill Mayer declared to the press that the UFL would return for a fourth season in the fall.
