In 16 thoughtful meditations, David Metzger, a father and a pediatric oncology nurse, describes the difficult, beautiful, and profound experience of caring for both his patients and his own young children. Metzger brings in the voices of seasoned nurses, young patients, and his patients' parents, each adding a perspective that helps guide him throughout his career. Equally powerful, he invites readers deep into his days, both the joyful and the painful. These experiences plus the familiar struggles and comic blunders of early parenthood result in a moving, sometimes hysterical, often sad, but always honest look at what it truly means to be a caregiver. A unique perspective on the ins-and-outs of working in the medical field, Nurse Papa is not just a book for parents but for anyone who ponders life's big questions.

Uses personal interviews with NFL executives, sportswriters, players, and coaches to present the life and accomplishments of the founding owner of the Chicago Bears football team, George Halas.

Kito wants to be just like his papa, the protector of the pride. Throughout a day and night on the savanna, the cub imitates the way his father roars, swings his tail, shakes his head, and pounces. Kito may be too little to catch a wildebeest, but he is brave enough to succeed in his own hunt. Someday he will be King, just like Papa. With its rhythmic text, dramatic moments on the African plain, playful times for cub and papa, and word-for-word narration this book will make a perfect read-aloud for family sharing.

Buckley and his mother cope with the loss of their father/husband by sending small wooden boats, built by Buckley, off into the ocean.

Love, Papá is an inspiring book written through the eyes of a child growing up victim to home violence and in extreme poverty, a story of innocence lost to the hardships of life at an age when playing and dreaming is all that life should be. Love, Papá is a story of perseverance, faith, and resiliency in the midst of chaos and scarcity. "We teach our children how to live life; in return, they teach us the meaning of it." Love, Papá is the tale of one, yet it is also the story of millions of children around the world being brought up in broken households by kind and faithful mothers. Love, Papá is a story of faith and mistakes that are essential in the recipe of life and wisdom. Life's best and strongest lessons are learned through hardships and failures. Prepare to feel a roller coaster of emotions, including hate, sympathy, happiness, sadness, and love. Life is perfect in its own way. God is always in control.

In a book with foldout pages, Monica's father fulfills her request for the moon by taking it down after it is small enough to carry, but it continues to change in size.

Alice was making a farm in the middle of her bedroom. She asked Mama for a pig and chickens for her farm, but when Mama didn't have a horse, Alice turned to her papa. "Please, Papa," said Alice. "Okay," said Papa, who, since Alice asked so nicely, put her on his back and trotted around like a horse himself. A playful story where, with the use of a single polite word, lines between the real and the imaginary become blurred as toy animals come to life. A companion to Thank You, Mama, Kate Banks and Gabi Swiatkowska's Please, Papa is perfect for a quick and playful lesson in manners.
