I try hard because I have a mind, and this is what all minds do. Your mind is constantly calculating what you should be doing now so that you'll feel better in the future. Get a college degree and then you will feel happy, your mind tells you. Do more yoga and then you'll feel more peaceful, your mind says.

3 Reasons to Stop Trying So Hard to Be Positive and Peaceful

Maybe the way you are trying hard isn't valuing your effort. For example: if you need to study for a test and you try to just study all the time and every day, you are probably going to burn yourself out. It's important to be healthy in all aspects of life (social, physical, mental, spiritual) so that your performance keeps good.
